

Welcome Our New Members

Brian Rodabaugh

Brian Rodabaugh has been attending Westminster Presbyterian for nearly 13 years. He and his partner Andrew are active in the Akron Community and are preparing to host their second exchange student for the 2019-2020 school year. Brian is a member of ILP and Westminster Presbyterian Choir. When he's not working, he spends much of his free time working on his home, in the garden or on an interior project. He also works with show choirs and musical theatre groups throughout the Midwest and East Coast. Brian is proud to call Westminster Presbyterian his home.

Karen Elvin

Karen Elvin is a native of her Hoosier state of Indiana. She & her spouse met at a Presbyterian youth camp and later reconnected and were married for 47 years until his tragic, sudden death of eight years ago. Karen is the mother of three daughters and one son.

She also keeps busy with nine grandchildren. The oldest is 27 years and the youngest is six years of age.

Karen lives in a senior community center and enjoys her hobby of painting. She worked as a teacher, school counselor and art therapist with special needs children. She has also been a Hospice volunteer for many years. Karen is happy to reconnect with her home church.

Todd and Sara Newman

We are Todd and Sara Newman. We live in the Wallhaven neighborhood and have a 4 year old daughter named Adeline. We both work as mental health counselors in private practice. We enjoy spending time outdoors and listening to music.
